SUBJECT: Status of H.R. 18786 - Agency Retirement Legislation

Following [redacted] conversation with Stan Kimmitt, Secretary for the Majority, that the Senator who requested that the bill (H.R. 18786) be passed over last Wednesday is still waiting for information from "downtown," I requested [redacted] to call Andy Ruddock, of the Retirement Bureau, and find out what he could on a low-key basis. Ben was informed, strictly off-the-record, that a Senator had called to verify that the bill in fact provided increases comparable to those granted under the Civil Service system. Ruddock told the Senator that he had not seen the bill, but the proposal he had seen earlier was designed to achieve comparability. This seemed to fully satisfy the Senator. Ruddock was not sure of the exact date of the call, but it was recently.
